About Meetinghouse Village

Retirement living for independent seniors
- For those age 55-plus, capable of independent living
- Monthly rent with no entrance fee or lease required; damage deposit equal to one month's rent required; 30-day written notice required for anyone wishing to leave
- Rent includes heat, water, sewer, trash removal, snow removal, security and site management/maintenance
- All who meet age and income requirements are welcome regardless of religious beliefs

Facilities
- Two campuses with 86 one- and two-bedroom apartments
- North Campus – two aggregate living buildings with elevator service and carports
- South Campus – village-style multi-plex cottages with stair access and driveways
- Many common areas and amenities available for resident use

History
- Established in 1993 with the purchase of the former Taylor Place, a 13-apartment senior housing building
- Steady improvements and additions led to current status with two campuses and 86 apartments
- Historically affiliated with the Advent Christian denomination, Meetinghouse Village is run as a non-denominational ministry serving the elderly

Ownership
We are owned and operated by a non-profit corporation, Advent Christian Retirement Communities Inc., which is led by an independent board of directors.

Monthly Rates
Monthly rates depend on apartment size and features. Please contact us for our current rates.

Amenities
- Some apartments have patios or decks
- Most apartments have AC
- Resident chaplain
- Chapel
- Laundry room
